JIMNESIA-2022

AN IN-HOUSE TALENT COMPETITION

JIMNESIA-2022 26th & 27th August

St. Joseph's Institute of Management (JIM) conducted the in-house event 'JIMNESIA' – Talent Hunt, annual management and cultural fest to provide a platform for JIM students to uncover their talent and explore it in common on the JIM campus. Students were divided into 6 houses named after the companions of St. Ignatius namely: Faber, Salmeron, Jean, Claude, Rodrigo, and Laynez. 10 Management events and 10 Cultural Events were conducted this year. Resourceful professors and faculty members from various schools and colleges were invited as judges to evaluate the work of the students.

The event began with the formal inauguration function on 25th August at 4.45 pm. The various houses' student and faculty coordinators came forward to receive the flag from Rev. Dr P Paulraj SJ, Director, JIM, who then flagged off the event.

The three-day management and cultural fest began with the event Instrophony and solo vocal. On the second day of the fest, a series of events took place in various venues. Students actively participated in them to fetch points for their houses. The day came to end with a sumptuous dinner.

On the third day of the events, there was a healthy competition between various houses. The points were constantly updated on the scoreboard. The valedictory function was held in Loyola Auditorium at 2 pm. The overall winners of JIMNESIA 2022 were 'Salmeron' with 180 points. The overall runners were 'Rodrigo' with 165 points. Rev. Dr P Paulraj SJ, Director, JIM and Rev. Fr. I Antony Inico SJ, Administrator, JIM distributed the certificates and trophies to the winners.
